Student Exchange

Dinabandhu Andrews College, Garia and Bengal Chess Association, agree that student exchange will be guided by principles listed below. A home institution refers to the institution where a student is a full time student and from where he/she is expected to graduate. A host institution refers to an institution that receives a student for a brief period of time to undertake a predetermined programme of study or research.

- (a) Exchange students will be selected by mutual agreement between the home institution and the host institution.
- (b) An exchange student will continue to be treated as full time student at his/her home institution.
- (c) An exchange student will be considered as full "exchange": student at the host institution.
- (d) His/her programme of study at the host institution will be determined by mutual consultation between his/her academic advisor at the home institution and his/her "interim academic advisor identified by the host institution.
- (e) The host institute will evaluate an exchange student's performance in each course or module, award a letter grade or marks and issue a letter to that effect.
- (f) The home institution may award to the exchange student credits earned at a host institution, but only after the home institution has established correspondence between courses taken at the host institution vis-a vis those offered at the home institution.

(g) If an exchange student has undertaken research then the host institution will evaluate the exchange student's performance in the research and issue a letter to that effect, together with a technical "report" of the research carried out.

(h) The exchange students will continue as usual to pay tuition and other fees at their home institution.

SCOPE OF THE MOU

(1) Both the Institutes believe that close cooperation between the two would be a major benefit to the student community to enhance their skills and knowledge.

(2) Exposure provided to students through this association will build confidence and prepare the students to have a smooth transition from academic to working career.

(3) The students will enrich themselves with the knowledge through the programme on the emerging technologies in order to bridge the gap in skill and make them ready for industry.

(4) The students of the two Institutes through this association will build their mutual value added knowledge, ethics and responsibility towards environment and society.

VALIDITY

(1) The validity of the agreement is five years from the date of agreement and may be continued thereafter suitable review of the agreement.

(2) Either institution may terminate the MOU by giving written notice to the other institution six months in advance. Once terminated, Dinabandhu Andrews College, Garia and Bengal Chess Association will be responsible for any losses financial or otherwise, which the other Institutions may suffer. However, Dinabandhu Andrews College, Garia and Bengal Chess Association will ensure that all activities in progress are allowed to complete successfully.
