purpose of collaborating on initiatives that promote humanitarian values, health awareness, and community service.

Background:

Dinabandhu Andrews College and Indian Red Cross Society share a common vision of serving the community and fostering values of compassion and social responsibility. Both parties intend to collaborate to extend their reach and impact through joint efforts.

Objectives:

1. To promote health awareness, first aid training, and emergency response education among college students and the wider community.
2. To conduct blood donation drives, health camps, and awareness campaigns on various health-related issues.
3. To foster a sense of community service and volunteerism among college students through engagement in Red Cross initiatives.

Terms of Collaboration:

1. Health Awareness Programmes: The Society shall organize health awareness programmes, workshops, and seminars on topics such as first aid, hygiene, disaster preparedness, and public health. The college shall facilitate student participation and provide venue support.
2. Blood Donation Drives: The Society shall coordinate and conduct blood donation drives within the college campus and its vicinity. The college shall assist in mobilizing volunteers and promoting the drives among students and staff.
3. Emergency Response Training: The Society shall provide training sessions on basic first aid and emergency response techniques to college students, empowering them to become first responders in times of need.
4. Community Engagement: Both parties shall collaborate to organize community service activities, such as visits to local hospitals, orphanages, and elderly care centres, to instil a sense of empathy and social responsibility among students.
5. Resource Sharing: The college and the Society shall exchange relevant resources, materials, and information to ensure the successful implementation of joint initiatives.
6. Evaluation and Feedback: Both parties shall conduct periodic assessments of the effectiveness of the collaborative programs and gather feedback from participants to make improvements.
